Dear Al,

Thanks, and thanks for the SASE, too.

Do I know that Newman! Though we never met.

He blocked 1965 publication of Whitewash by a false, prejudiced and inaccurate "peer" review of it.

He was then a former Newsweek correspondent, known to someone at that publishing house. He did not disclose to her that he was writing a book of his own.

That book is based upon the utterly incredible crap, that the cheap radio Oswald brought back from the USSR was his means of getting messages from Cuba worked into regular radio entertainment or news broadcasts from there!

The cheapest of the commercial radios in the US were adequate for that because Cuba beamed high-powered broadcasts to the whole eastern part and across the south.

More, that radio he brought back, according to the FBI, did not work anyway!

I do not recall noticing that the dust jacket said nothing about him. I have the book somewhere or gave it to Dave Wrone.

It is awful right-wing sickness. Based as are most, on preconceptions, his including the political.

Thanks and best,

Harold
